A WALK DOWN NANYANG ETHOS

尋一場南洋舊夢

Words 撰文 : Tika Ho / Translation 翻譯 : Natasha Yip

Each arched doorway exudes the strong Nanyang ethos; each graphic tile embeds a piece of history. Xiamen Andaz Hotel, a modern mansion with a nostalgic dream to unfold.

- Andaz Xiamen in south China is set to become the sixth hotel under Hyatt Hotels Corporation. Situated in the heart of Xiamen, within the mixed-use development of The MixC and close to Xiamen Botanical Garden, Andaz Xiamen was created and conceptualised by BLINK Design Group following the acquisition of Jaya International Design. BLINK Design Group envisioned the design of Andaz Xiamen as a modern mansion inspired by the tropical Nanyang style and the city's sobriquet as a 'Garden by the Sea'.

Throughout the hotel, there is an abundance of Nanyang design elements; from the rattan ceiling to graphically tiled floor and repeated arched doorways. 從步入酒店開始，隨處可見藤編、花磚、迴廊……南洋風格的經典元素在其中交織、串聯，重疊在一起。

- Wandering in Nanyang, a nostalgic dream begins to unfold. Throughout the hotel, there is an abundance of Nanyang design elements; from the rattan ceiling to graphically tiled floor and repeated arched doorways, all weaving in the Nanyang feel, where old meets new and east meets west. The hotel has also been conceived as a new interpretation of Nanyang style architecture on the UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Kulangsu.
- The hotel houses 304 elegant rooms, including 20 suites with separate living rooms, which enjoy vibrant views over the city. The Nanyang-inspired private spaces feature elements that reinforce the Nanyang feel, from rattan-backed armchairs to woven bamboo wall paneling to timber louvres, telling the stories of Chinese overseas in Nanyang back in the old days and creating an immersive experience for guests.
- The Nanyang style is carved into the rooms, as well as four innovative, immersive drinking and dining venues at Andaz Xiamen. No. 101 Chinese Restaurant, named after the hotel

- address, showcases an array of tropical Nanyang design elements from the rattan ceiling to the graphically tiled floor. Helmed by a team of local senior chefs, natural local ingredients are selected to present local Minnan and Chaoshan cuisines with a twist.
- Sharing the outdoor terrace with No. 101 Chinese Restaurant is More Than Wine, celebrating the ocean-faring culture of Xiamen and Nanyang as a tropical-themed bar in the city.
- Natural light spills through the skylights of Andaz Lounge and lightens this convivial heart of Andaz Xiamen, a bright central gathering spot where skylights, tropical plants, graphic carpeting and views of an outdoor courtyard come together to create a vibrant Nanyang-style space.
- In addition, the hotel also provides various social spaces for hosting meetings and events, including a gracious Ballroom for wedding banquets or product release conferences, as well as four multi-functional studios with high-tech audio-visual systems which are perfect for business meetings and lively interactive activities. The exquisitely beautiful spaces will guarantee every guest the perfect experience.
- Reviving classic Nanyang elements as a 'Garden by the Sea', Andaz Xiamen is a gem awaiting to be discovered.
