LAPIS LAZULI SCULPTURE

from Katharine Pooley

Besides retailing custom-made pieces, Pooley's namesake brand offers an inspiring selection of sculptures and decor accessories. "I particularly love this Lapis Lazuli sculpture and recently specified it for a client's property in Singapore," she says.

DOUBLE LOWTHER VANITY BASIN

from Drummonds

"When I wish to elevate a bathroom design from ordinary to extraordinary, I look to British supplier Drummonds," says Pooley. "Their fittings and sanitaryware have a classic feel and the detailing and finishes evoke an old-world glamour."

Class Act

Known for crafting impeccably elegant interiors, British designer Katharine Pooley has a knack for finding pieces to treasure. Here, she picks out her recent favourites By Hong Xinying

BESPOKE BAR CABINET

from Katharine Pooley

The designer's namesake furnishings brand also offers customised pieces, such as this bar cabinet. "This geometric straw marquetry and bronze bespoke bar we created last year is beautifully detailed; it inspires conversation and admiration in equal measure," says Pooley.

GALAXY SIDE TABLE

from Gallery Kifu

Pooley loves shopping at Kifu Paris, a gallery in the French capital. "I love this side table; we recently included this piece in a living room in London, the shellwork and shagreen detailing is exemplary," she says.

BIRTH OF TRAZAMITE

from Based Upon

Pooley continues to be inspired by the impressive work of the design ateliers and art collectives in London; including creations from UK studio Based Upon. "For incredibly luxurious, beautiful statement pieces, I often turn to Based Upon. Their workmanship and imaginative designs are peerless."
